Inspection Staff
Assistant General Counsel

FROM :

Assistant General Counsel

SUBJECT : Procedures Relating to Certain Unconsented Physical Searches and Mail Opening Activities Directed Against United States Persons and Conducted by CIA

1. Attached is a copy of the third draft of the subject procedures. I have discussed them with the General Counsel and he made several language changes as follows:

a. Paragraph 10: the last part of the first sentence which was to read; "upon which he believes the Attorney General can determine that; ..." is now "relied upon to justify a reasonable belief that:"

b. Paragraph 10a: drop the word "information" at the last of the line.

c. Paragraph 10d: change the third word from "does" to "will."

d. Paragraph 16: This has been rewritten to more fully express what I believe was our intention.

2. I have added paragraph 18 which is identical to that suggested for the electronic surveillance procedures. If anyone has thoughts or suggestions regarding this paragraph we can go into that subject as we discuss the electronic surveillance procedures tomorrow.

3. The General Counsel intends to send these procedures as they are now written to the Department of Justice as the first step in the process outlined in the
